	2020-08-17 12:44:31	KwaZulu-Natal		I do not know anything with regards to the candidates. I only hope that whoever is chosen is Moral, Honest, Ethical and is above suspicion with regards to any criminal activity or corruption. He also needs to be a person who will not be afraid to stand up to any political party where corruption is concerned.	Mary
	2020-08-16 20:29:08	KwaZulu-Natal		Tsakani Maluleki is failing the organization.Unfair Labour practic/Discrimination/ unjustified different salary scales among employees performing the same responsibilities .The employees of the organization are afraid of management alienation and vitimisation.Labour & CCMA please intervene.It sad that this Supreme Institution has such challenges. 	2020-08-16 08:42:28	KwaZulu-Natal		Integrity, competence and not under political influence by others is a critical component of appointing a candidate. The track record of each must be interrogated, including potential signs of cronyism, nepotism or taking favours from powerful politicians or captains of industry. This includes lifestyle audits and family members who conduct business in the areas where the AG holds oversight or decision-making powers.	Mark
	2020-08-15 19:30:04	KwaZulu-Natal		Sars are bunch of crooks we pay alot of tax every month and we can't see nothing good happening in this country. The country is going worst sake of better. The government we have now can't put eskom right yet we pay so much of tax. Denmark people pay tax and most of the things are free espicially government things here the money is getting stolen and no one is getting charged or even paying the money back. Anc is letting all of us down time we all vote for a party which will pick South Africa up and put things in it's rightful place thank u.	Denzel

	2020-08-14 15:32:07	KwaZulu-Natal		Whoever is being chosen needs to publicly declare all points of potential conflicts of interest and also set out expectations with their interpretation of necessary consequences to be meted out to themselves if they fail to uphold their own standards. That will ensure a dedicated person getting the position.	Jerry

	2020-08-13 18:47:34	KwaZulu-Natal		Bullshit baffles brains but not all! How can someone deemed to be criminally intent should an error of judgement be made! Only the Politicians can seem to get away with such dishonesty in our Dear South Africa these days. Whatever happened to "Innocent Until Proven Guilty" in at least a Court of Law. Despicable honestly is all I have to say today.	Lesley

	2020-08-13 10:40:41	KwaZulu-Natal		I comment on no specific candidate.. However in the interests of the Tax Payers Money that will remunerate the successful candidate, we implore the selectors to ensure that the candidate is : 1. NOT A MEMBER OF THE ANC 2. NO IMMEDIATE FAMILY IS A MEMBER OF THE ANC. 3. HAS NOT BEEN IMPLICATED IN ANY WRONG DOING iro Finance, Corruption 4. SIGNS AN AGREEMENT that allows for any CORRUPTION on the part of the CANDIDATE to be charged within 6 months of the offence being identified and on a NO PAY basis during suspension and their ASSETS ARE FROZEN IMMEDIATELY in the event. 5. 	2020-08-12 14:58:44	KwaZulu-Natal		All candidates have impressive qualifications and experience. However, I would go along with those who are for the idea of the appointment of the current Deputy AG for continuity purposes, and also to motivate internal staff members in the Office of the AG to work hard so that they also can be considered for any other senior position if they study further and remain working hard within the same organisation without jumping for other jobs else where. All the best with your final appointment!!!	Dr. Elliot Michael Sibusiso

	2020-08-12 11:20:50	KwaZulu-Natal		I do not know any of the candidates so I cannot comment on them. However, those doing the interviews and employing them need to make damn sure that the person is properly and honestly qualified to do the job. And also make sure that it is not a political decision! 	2020-08-12 10:08:29	KwaZulu-Natal		The present AG has fingered all municipalities in corruption (perhaps not Western Cape). But not one person has been prosecuted. Obviously we need a candidate who is not bought by the ANC. Whoever that is... go for it.	Natalie
	2020-08-12 10:00:44	KwaZulu-Natal		What has the existing AG achieved in his stay in office noting very well the extensive looting that has taken place in our country with rampant corruption. 	2020-08-11 19:58:41	KwaZulu-Natal		I quote SABC news: "Meanwhile, the Democratic Alliance, Phumzile Van Damme says the resignation of SABC board member Rachel Kalidass is a sign that things have not changed at the public broadcaster. Van Damme says, "The resignation of Rachel Kalidass at the SABC means that its 'business as usual' at the public broadcaster. The person was that the rest of the SABC board members were pushing to be GCEO. It has been revealed on Thursday morning that it is Alan Mukoki, the former CEO of the Land Bank, who is completely unsuitable for the position. We also strongly encourage the SABC board not to appoint Mr Mukoki as the SABC CEO."		Kenric
	2020-08-11 19:29:44	KwaZulu-Natal		Any candidate who has been implicated in corruption or has a record of fraud or any such suspicion should not be considered for this post. The best qualified must get the job Not the cadre deployment that usually happens. This is too important a job to be politicised and must be given to the person who puts south africa first rather than their political party. Simple		Tracy
	2020-08-11 19:28:58	KwaZulu-Natal		Michael Sass seems to be the most qualified for the job.		Heidi
	2020-08-11 18:40:08	KwaZulu-Natal		Good .uncorruptable and upstanding people at ALL LEVELS and at all times must be appointed and monitored. Fire at first sign of fraud, corruption,dishonesty.		Johann
	2020-08-11 18:21:05	KwaZulu-Natal		Now this list looks like the organization is putting their people in. Missing a few highly qualified people for THIS position. But Michael Sass looks on paper the most reasonable candidate. Maybe we will be sorry in a couple of months time but hopefully he does not let us down.		Elza
	2020-08-11 18:20:04	KwaZulu-Natal		Michael Sass would be my nomination. There is a strict proviso that he and his family or connections are in no way politically affiliated to ANC as this is where the rot is in South Africa. The ANC must not politically control this department!		Eileen Linda
	2020-08-11 18:10:56	KwaZulu-Natal		Shabeer Khan should be nominated.		Nazeema

	2020-08-11 16:18:58	KwaZulu-Natal		All candidates need to be audited and checked that they are not family of or best friends with any person in any political party. They should be completely neutral and unbiased, with a track record of acting with integrity.		Petronella

	2020-08-11 15:46:24	KwaZulu-Natal		No ANC or any other political party candidates as it will be unethical and SA needs an independant person to fill this role.		Yvette

	2020-08-11 13:14:57	KwaZulu-Natal		We are being grossly over taxed now due to massive fraud and corruption by the ANC government no more. Sort out the corruption and prosecute the offenders and taxes can be reduced	Peter

		Not being suitable informed and knowledgeable in tax matters I am copying and pasting the Moneyweb's article here below:- In the preamble to the latest Tax Administration Bill, the South African Revenue Service (SARS) indicates that it proposes to "remove the requirement of intent from certain criminal offenses". In what has become SARS attempt at a "tough stance" to scare taxpayers into compliance, it has taken a blunt tool to remove a higher burden of proof that an action – or an omission – had criminal intent. SARS has already decided that any action or omission was "willfully done", and is therefore criminal. So why should it waste time in trying to determine this? It seems that in SARS book, taxpayers cannot make an honest error (naturally this doesn't apply to SARS's own staff). Bowmans partner Patricia Williams explains: "SARS wants to remove the requirement that the relevant action must have been done 'willfully'. This removes the requirement of criminal intent before the action is considered a crime." Burden of evidence SARS has in the past attempted to "utilise the criminal offense provisions to extract funds from people". However, to be successful, SARS had to clear the 'wilful intent' hurdle. This was obviously placing too high a degree of skillfulness on SARS auditors; after all, 'wilful intent' requires a heavier burden of evidence. Says Williams: "Criminal intent already encompasses dolus eventualis – that is, foreseeing the reasonable possibility of an outcome and reconciling yourself to that. In the circumstances, gross negligence would already arguably meet the standard of something 'willfully' done. What SARS is seeking to do is to criminalise mistakes." Many frustrated taxpayers and tax practitioners complain that SARS treats them like criminals. Well, here is the proof. SARS intends excising 'wilful intent' from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Paragraph 30 (employees' tax offenses) of the Fourth Schedule to the Income Tax Act (TAA); Section 58 (offenses in regard to compliance) of the Value-Added Tax Act; and Section 234 of the Tax Administration Act. The amendment to Section 234 of the TAA now changes an error that can be made by anyone into a criminal act, such as: the failure to notify SARS of a postal address, a physical address, banking particulars used for transactions with SARS, an electronic address used for communication with SARS, or such other details as the commissioner may require by public notice. It is also apparent that SARS expects all taxpayers to read their public notices, even those without access to the internet or newspapers. Further, Section 234 provides that SARS may register and allocate a taxpayer reference number to a person who is not registered. Woe betide the person who doesn't know this, as not using this number in any communication with SARS will turn you into a criminal. In the Draft Memorandum on the objects of the Tax Administration Laws Amendment Bill, SARS reasons that using the term "willfully" in respect of a statutory crime is not correct, and that it is not possible to "willfully" neglect something, and that failing to do something required by the Act could be "problematic". Intent Williams is of the view that: "This is patently wrong. One can purposefully fail to submit one's tax return, or purposefully fail to pay one's taxes. This looks like SARS is misstating the position, in order to make the proposed [unfair] amendment seem more reasonable." The National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) is of the view "that the current wording relating to criminal offenses substantially undermines the ability of SARS to ensure compliance based on the objective standard expected of the reasonable person".

	2020-08-16 12:41:52	Eastern Cape		Candidate Rachel Kalibas states that she has 25 years of experience. Having been born in 1981 this would mean she qualified at the age of 14 years old, then spent the next 25 years in an auditing related occupation. I find this highly unlikely and would seriously question the credibility of this candidate. Candidate Tsakani Maluleke appears to be the most suitable candidate from a brief study of his CV. The balance of the candidates have been responsible for audit controls of some sort or the other in domains that are riddled with irregularities and corruption and have no place in heading up the office of the Auditor General. 	2020-08-14 05:24:51	Eastern Cape		A number of candidates are, in my opinion, very well qualified but lack expertise and experience in the extremely arduous task of especially trying to clean up municipal financial control in this country, which continues to post larger and larger budgetary discrepancies. Mr M.Sass has extensive experience and a proven track record in cleaning up and reversing this backward slide of municipalities into irregular and illegal expense.,		Jim
	2020-08-14 04:53:09	Eastern Cape		Tsakani Maluleke is the right candidate for this position.With broad experience in the public sector and also the fact that she understands the AG mandate.Moreover,it would be good to have the first woman as the auditor general.		Mbalenhe

	2020-08-12 20:50:19	Eastern Cape		I support Zakarieya Hoosain. The AG needs new blood! All previous Auditor General Positions have been undertaken by those who are already in the AG office, namely as The Deputy Auditor General. While this may be considered a strong point, it is important with our current political climate and vulnerable economic situation that new people with fresh ideas, wisdom and experience can join the position with a different perspective and outlook which is important for any position that aims to promote growth and change. 	2020-08-12 12:43:56	Eastern Cape		MS. TSAKANI MALULEKE should be your first choice. The roll of Auditor-General goes well beyond auditing qualifications and memberships. Ms Maluleke has the hands on experience and will function 100% in the roll without any interruption of the functioning of the critically important role played by the Auditor-General and its staff. Many candidates are good but she is the best choice.	Stephen

	2020-08-12 10:08:25	Eastern Cape		Mr Sass appears to be a suitable candidate. The AG should not be affiliated to any political party and his/her agenda must be for the best interests of the country and not for personal/political gain. There is enough corruption and dishonesty already.	Caren

	2020-08-12 07:53:21	Eastern Cape		Sass is the preferred choice, but to be honest none of candidates makes me feel comfortable. I would prefer a strong candidate from opposition party, as ANC cannot Audit themselves..	Jacques
	2020-08-12 07:19:54	Eastern Cape		I am sick and tired of all the Crime in South Africa and the fact that Mr Ramaphosa does nothing about it. If there was any way possible to leave our once beautiful fully productive Country i would consider it. The ANC cannot govern a Country. In 30 years nothing positive has been done. S.A has so much land to accomodate every person living here, and yet people are still living in Shacks!! Why? every person should live in a house built of bricks and mortar. Less crime dishonesty etc and this could have been done.	Rachel

	2020-08-17 10:26:46	Gauteng		Exemplary and transformational leadership are inherent characteristics of DAG Tsakani Maluleke. Her stewardship through the rough seas brought about by COVID-19 is remarkable and would augur well for continuity for Tsakani to ascend to the AG role. She has shown a keen interest in big ticket operational issues which have an impact on the AGSA meeting its constitutional mandate. With that being said, on the CV alone, it would be difficult to select an ideal candidate, however Tsakani's institutional knowledge gives her a considerable advantage over others.	Jubilee Phetogo

	2020-08-16 12:18:45	Gauteng		I've had enough of seeing incompetent government employees, ministers & parliament representatives!! I don't have the expertise to judge on their CV's of these individuals, but surely will voice my opinion on the person who employs them, we as a nation will keep you accountable for your appointments. List of the following is imperative: Competence for the position filled, Honesty, Transparency, having the nation at heart & not having their own hidden agendas, working towards building up the mess that has remained! No family or friends of the government, should be implemented, only those who are in fact QUALIFIED with every tick, ticked off to fill the JOB & then kept accountable, if not accountable there should be a clause of consequences to the position filled. I'm fed up with a government who don't seem to care about their own people, asking more taxes, finding more SOE's they can steal from, because THEY SIMPLY DON'T CARE about integrity, honesty, upholding the nation, transparency & actually doing what South Africans pay taxes for.... I'm done with this unbelievable 'no care' for South Africans!!! If you going to make demands of BEE status of companies, STOP STEALING & LINING UP your own pockets, get the proper & qualified personal & do the job properly!	Chantelle
	2020-08-16 10:38:18	Gauteng		My main concern is whether the selected candidate is prepared to report any form of corruption regarding state finances, and to enable offenders to be prosecuted, in an attempt to wipe out the widespread looting of state funds, which in fact represent South Africans' tax money, which is currently in short supply, considering that public debt is approaching 100% of GDP.	Daniel

	2020-08-16 06:12:32	Gauteng	The current DAG is not well accustomed with government policies and how it runs. I would recommend Alice Muller or Meisie Nkgau, they would make good AG and employees in the AG would have been taken care of.,not things we see now	Ngoako

2020-08-14 14:11:35	Gauteng			You need to select the person who is professional, independent, Apolitical and can provide strong leadership to team in the AG office. A person that can report without fear of favor and can stand up to political pressure or persuasion. It must be person who is not afraid or shy to be visible in the public space and communicate to ensure there is public accountability.	Shauket
2020-08-14 14:08:34	Gauteng			In my opinion, Tsakane has failed to lead the organisation as the DAG. She leads with dictatorship and does not listen (it's her way or the high way). To her qualification means competency and that is not the case. Although we celebrate people that are qualified CA's we also acknowledge that there are other e.g RGA professionals. Tsakane turned the AGSA into an institution which values the CA professionals while disregarding RGA's and ACCA which are audit professions that were recognised at the AGSA.	Kgothatso

2020-08-14 12:56:19	Gauteng			The cornerstone of our democracy through its founding principles is the protection of human rights and dignity of all. Tsakani has failed in providing leadership at the AG and as result people that dared challenge her were fired. So she cannot be trusted to be the guardian of the countries audit institution. Qualifications alone are not enough to have someone sit in the position of leadership.	Chesterfield

2020-08-14 12:44:26	Gauteng			My choice is Michael Sass, provided he has no political affiliation. My general comment is that, in the final selection process, candidates should present their plans to address the following: 1. Corruption is a growing pandemic, there were so many scandals in government, raising the question "where were the auditors" with some scandals so huge that we should be asking where was the AG?" 2. There are so many government departments, especially the municipalities, that are not achieving clean audits. Especially those candidates who were AC members etc. what have they done to improve the situation. Municipalities in particular need to be consistent yet MSCOA implementation seems to be protracted - how will this be expedited. 3. Do they believe the AG structure is conducive and practical to address audit services Nationally. 4. How will AG enhance and expedite/and support the use of Data Analytics & Analysis to broaden the scope and depth of audit activities. 5. Candidates should demonstrate all round expertise in Risk Management not just having a qualification, after all Audits should be Risk-based!	Schalk

	2020-08-14 11:00:09	Gauteng	As my comments will have no bearing on the selection of the successful candidate, I suggest that strong favour is given to the current Deputy. She appears to have the background, depth of experience and hopefully being a South African will have an understanding of the workings within the present corrupt ruling party. I hesitate to use the word government as it would imply some form of competence. She must then have a strong team and lead by example in all spheres of her position.	Stuart
	2020-08-14 09:15:09	Gauteng	As the Auditor-General plays an extremely important in the oversight of public entities and government spending, it is critical that the appointee must have extensive audit experience, preferably with experience in the public sector at a senior level. The appointee must have excellent credentials with demonstrable management skills. The must be a South African with a South African qualification. Thus, a CA(SA) with experience in one of the big-4 firms or the AGSA is a minimum prerequisite. Ms Maluleke has all the necessary qualifications and experience and, with her current role as Deputy Auditor-General, she is ideally placed to move into the role of Auditor-General. Mr Sass does not have the necessary auditing experience. Dr Gasela is not a CA(SA) and his focus seems to be more academic than managerial. Mr Khan, Ms Kalidass and Mr Hussain seem to have the necessary experience and qualifications. Mr Lekhuleni does not have the necessary experience or qualification.	Jacqueline

If you really want to know how she really is, ask the trainees at head office (Lefika house) . Therefore being a woman or not, she should not get the position!	Khensani
	2020-08-14 08:56:26	Gauteng	Zakariya Hoosain, seems to be the best person for this appointment from the bunch. However, personally I cannot understand that the ANC does not have a more qualified and experienced candidate than what they shortlisted, this position is not for people who think they can manage such a huge responsibility, it is for people who know they can and have gone through the 'mill' of lives experiences, done similar work and learned from their peers and apply best practices. Integrity, unbias attitude, accountability, and to have the interest of the South African Nation at heart is a must, this is not a place or position that he/she can use as a stepping stone and a career shaper, this is 'for real'.	Ben
	2020-08-14 08:23:56	Gauteng	Tsakani Ratsela She is not suitable for this position, because she failed to provide leadership and continues to appoint and support whiteness in her organization. There is currently a court case on a labour matter of racism and unfairly labour practices against her and her organization. So you can't have such a character leading an important institution of our young democracy.	Chesterfield
	2020-08-14 08:17:07	Gauteng	Michael Sass, he's not fit and proper to hold office. He failed as Accountant General where he served for less than 12 months and he's alleged to have failed in his duties while serving as Accountant General in the Intergrated Financial Management System debacle at National Treasury. We cannot have a person that doesn't inspire confidence as Auditor General.	Bafana

	2020-08-14 05:44:00	Gauteng	Ms Tsakani Maluleke, CA (SA) is the outstanding candidate. She holds the position of deputy auditor general and will continue in the strong vein of form left by the former auditor general; who had done a great job of exposing underlying mismanagement of public funds particularly in municipalities.	Tshepo
	2020-08-14 00:04:00	Gauteng	The post requires solid credentials and great depth of experience in both public sector and private sector statutory audits. It also requires a candidate that is uncompromising and demonstrate high degree of integrity, ethics and objectivity no matter the circumstances. Furthermore, within the SA context, the audit profession remains extremely untransformed hence far from achieving BBBEE targets. Lastly, an individual that understands the complexities and dynamics of other key stakeholder professional bodies or associations within the accountants and auditors arena. From the list of prospective candidates, Tsakani Maluleke has had a great depth of exposure as stated above and demonstrate sufficient appreciation of the lay of the land within the audit and accounting profession. Her unassailable leadership skills will do SA proud in this position. She is the greatest find in this so crucial aspect for the country.	Ronald
	2020-08-13 23:45:28	Gauteng	My vote goes to Moses Gasela CA (SA) who has shown over the years the values that the AG office requires which is integrity with all the corruption taking place. He will be the most suitable candidate.	Sindiswa

				Good day, I highly recommend appointment of Ms Tsakani Maluleke, current Deputy AGSA. Her solid understanding of the institution will ensure smooth succession of leadership and continued independence of AGSA. Given her varied and fertile corporate experience, her appointment as the new Auditor General will be a privilege for the institution and the country as a whole, especially when the country desperately needs leadership of her unquestionable integrity. 	2020-08-13 21:09:27	Gauteng		In my life as a Shopsteward and Professional I learnt that the qualifications are important and they become useless if leadership is lacking, it's like a beautiful car without a good driver which ends up dented every panel, qualifications doesn't define the content of character, let's forget a bit about qualifications and concentrate on charactership which is more vital than your crammed theories which are constructive in practicality. South Africans be wise in electing your leaders.	Lawrence
	2020-08-13 21:07:19	Gauteng		I am commenting on Tsakani Maluleke, the current Deputy Auditor General. I think she should be given a chance since she is the current deputy for continuity purposes in the organisation and for diversity, it is time for a black African female Auditor General. The face of the Accounting profession in particular the CA(SA) qualification in South Africa not in accordance with the demographics of the country. As a result this appointment will encourage the marginalised to pursue an accounting qualification.	Mziwanele
	2020-08-13 20:29:51	Gauteng		Ms Tsakane Maluleke I honest believe she's the best candidate for this position, it's time that women are recognized in this country. Tsakane is not about her its about representing all ladies and that will encourage all ladies out there	Bulelani

	2020-08-13 19:14:42	Gauteng		Ms Tsakani	Letoya
	2020-08-13 19:01:04	Gauteng		Unfortunately Tsakani, lacks in other areas of upholding the constitution. As the CEO of the AGSA, she has very little regard to her employees constitutional rights. She would rather opt to have her office unfairly dismiss you and settle out of court to have you permanently removed. She lacks the simple understanding of unfair discrimination based on skin color and would rather have you out of the organization then to deal with the matter as required by constitutional prescripts. She is not the right person to address issues subtle racism within the AGSA as an institution which is exists to strengthen our democracy.	Malinds
	2020-08-13 17:24:05	Gauteng		Any well educated, qualified HONEST person who will stand up against the corruption of the ANC!!!	Suzette

	2020-08-13 17:15:18	Gauteng		Such an incredible time and opportunity for inclusion in positions of power and influence. So excited for what the AG can achieve going forward. I recommend Tsakani Maluleke, great candidate for the position.	Sesona

				The unfortunately unavoidable truth is that all entities, whether SOE's , Central, Provincial, or Municipal Government (particularly the latter) are renown more for their unsatisfactory and unethical management of monies taken from the citizenry. It is thus imperative, in the strongest possible interpretation of that word, that the Auditor General be of the highest integrity, boldly unafraid to criticise where such is due, and to be totally resistant to any political interference. An appointment based on a decision of the ANC alone simply cannot meet even the most minimal requirements of ethical integrity for this appointment since that political Party has evidenced very little understanding of these principles, thus it must be one that has the full support of EVERY political Party represented in Parliament.

2020-08-13 13:33:01	Gauteng		Tsakani Maluleke - the AG's office has an impeccable standing in the public sector and Tsakani has played a key role in it. Not only does she tick all the boxes from a qualification and experience point of view, she also has a deep understanding of the internal operations of this institution. The AGSA is a complex organ of state and having witnessed her leadership and strategic foresight over many years, there is simply no competition for Tsakani Maluleke.	Marissa

	2020-08-13 09:42:35	Gauteng	I support the current Deputy Auditor General, Ms. Tsakani Maluleke. We need more women in top leadership positions in government. She knows the ropes and hopefully will be in a position of power to root out corruption which will be the death of this country if it is allowed to continue unchecked.	Rene
	2020-08-13 09:40:38	Gauteng	They are all well qualified for the position, and it pleases me to see the quality of the candidates. Political affiliation will play a role and it SHOULD not, neither should previous positions in the government environment, as it will be tainted if it has been in the past 10 stolen years. Go all of you and much success and DO A GOOD JOB AS SOUTH AFRICA NEEDS YOU TO BE ABOVE BOARD and politics!	Philip

	2020-08-13 09:11:15	Gauteng	My support goes for the current Deputy Auditor General, Ms. Tsakani Maluleke. Tsakani is a fierce fighter for good governance, transparency and public accountability. Her knowledge of the mismanagement of public resources, the reasons for the failures and the reporting of those to the citizens is unmatched. She has the character and the emotional strength to lead one of the few remaining pillars of the democracy in the country - the AGSA. I encourage the committee to recognize the vast experience that Tsakani has as well as her knowledge of the many processes already in place to identify mismanagement of public funds. Continuity in a well functioning institution is of paramount importance.	Tsvetana
	2020-08-13 08:58:01	Gauteng	Tsakani Ratsela is an exceptional leader. I had the privilege of having worked with her briefly at the AGSA, and she had managed to acquaint herself with the key issues within a short space of time. It is also opportune for her to lead the office at a time where institutions matter more than ever. An understanding of the pain points at our state owned entities, municipalities, provincial and national government is critical at a time where issues of governance need attention. Her experience, particularly as the Deputy Auditor General provides comfort of continuity, whilst also providing an opportunity for a contemporary approach.	Paul
	2020-08-13 08:50:06	Gauteng	Impressed by the in-depth experience of the selected candidates with great amount of exposure in both public and private sector. May the best candidate be appointed to serve the interest of the country at large. Personal opinion would have Deputy AG appointed due to institutional memory she holds.	Makolotwane
	2020-08-13 08:41:17	Gauteng	MUST BE SOUTH AFRICAN BORN AND BRED, MUST BE NON POLITICAL - IF ANY AFFILIATION TO THE ANC, MUST BE DISQUALIFIED IMMEDIATELY. 	2020-08-13 08:33:01	Gauteng	Tsakani Maluleke is the only choice. She has the right skill set and worked with the current AG Kimmi Makwetu who does an excellent job. Ms Maluleke has the institutional memory and can take off where Mr Makwetu leaves thus continuing the excellent work and causing no pause in what is our last institution which still functions properly. 	2020-08-13 08:15:23	Gauteng	Mr Michael Sass would be my choice for this position. He is not connected to any government political department and has all the necessary qualifications to fulfil the significant position. He has nothing to hide .	Arlene

				Tsakani Maluleke is the best candidate for the job. She's is highly experienced and competent for the post. She has great leadership skills with great business acumen and interpersonal skills. Interpersonal skill is key in this role as she will interact with different stakeholders Eg Parliament. ScoaG, Scopa. She's cool, calm, intelligent and level headed and one has to be level headed in this role. Emotional intelligence is the key here and she possesses that attribute. Furthermore, Business Continuity is an important aspect and she will Forster that. Transition to the role will be easy as she is already part of the institution and has acted on the role from time to time when the AG was not available for prolonged periods. She will hit the road running. She is an example of what a great leader should be. She understands the make or break of the institution., most important she understands the audit machinery and the funding machinery including the people machinery. She understands AGSA stakeholders and dynamics. She will bring value that will improve the state of governance in this country. She is what this country has been thirsting for, a Breath of fresh air.

2020-08-13 07:46:53	Gauteng			Micheal Sass, on face value of his CV, seems to be the best candidate to fill this immensely important position. 	2020-08-12 19:43:20	Gauteng		Sass & Hossein have the leadership capacity to call the shots in this extremely important function given the defunct status of our government looters. Unless it is probably cadre and political appointments . Time for the merit to come through.	peter

	2020-08-12 13:15:01	Gauteng	I have very little experience in what is expected of them. Not in the field to acknowledge whether their CV's meets the criteria. However, none of them are revealing which political party they represent. They should be neutral. As they will not reveal their under hand bribes they have been involved in, if any, sorry, pulling one of the Government tricks by painting all with the same paint brush, all effort needs to be conducted, searched and scrutinized to ensure they clear of any wrong doing . Our Government has a knack of employing the wrong person for the job.	Kathryn Gail
	2020-08-12 13:04:39	Gauteng	Op grond van sy toepaslike en wye ervaring in en van die staat se instellings en veral finansies, beskou ek Michael Sass as die mees gesikste kandidaat.	Louis
	2020-08-12 12:58:25	Gauteng	I have viewed some of the cvs of candidates and none of them made any admissions on their political affiliations . They should not belong to any political party and a very important submission should be on any criminal record.	anguth
	2020-08-12 12:41:58	Gauteng	Mr Sass. Hopefully he has NO affiliation with the corruption in the ANC	Dave
	2020-08-12 11:47:53	Gauteng	I would suggest Mr. Sass he seems to be well qualified. However, I sincerely hope that whoever gets the position will conduct themselves in an ethical manner and serve the country and not themselves.	Ann
	2020-08-12 11:45:57	Gauteng	The candidate must not be a member of the ANC and needs to be completely free of any allegations of political interference.	Philip
	2020-08-12 11:33:10	Gauteng	From the shortlisted candidates, I know and worked with Tsakani Maluleke and Shabeer Khan but for this post I go with Tsakani Maluleke.	Given
	2020-08-12 11:32:20	Gauteng	My vote goes to Mr Sass followed by Mr Hoosein. They both seem to have the right qualifications. and experience	john
	2020-08-12 11:29:44	Gauteng	For the sake of continuity and for success-potential I believe that Ms Tsakani Maluleke, CA (SA) will be the best candidate. Women in these kind of institutions have an excellent track record in SA	Dave

	2020-08-12 11:06:25	Gauteng	Having perused the various CV's I would select the current Deputy AG as she has by far the most experience of the environment having been the National Leader for 2 years prior to being appointed Deputy AG, a position she has held for the past 6 years. Apart from having first hand knowledge of the historic corruption within our government, given the increased instability within our economy and the added enormous responsibility of auditing the distribution of COVID funds this year, I feel that the organisation will benefit greatly from Tsakani's lengthy AG experience and the continuity that she will provide during these uncertain times, where others may need at least 12 - 18 months to familiarise themselves with environment before being able to be effective.	Robyn
	2020-08-12 10:58:42	Gauteng	The best candidate must have no political connections, particularly the ANC. Possibly Michael Sass.	Robert
	2020-08-12 10:57:25	Gauteng	Mr Michael Sass is a very good candidate he knows the infrastructure, culture etc of South Africa . Hopefully will not allow corruption, bribery and intimidation to do this job. Second Option s Mr Edmond Shoko-Lekuleni and Mr Shabeer Khan.	Monique

	2020-08-12 10:39:34	Gauteng	Michael Sass - believe he has the best experience within Governmental departments	louise
	2020-08-12 10:21:26	Gauteng	Someone really qualified, not so politically involved that they cannot put the benefit of the country as first priority. No corruption anymore please.	Patricia
	2020-08-12 10:15:12	Gauteng	Met n regering wat bykans alles gemanupileer, is dit moontlik dat daar konsensus bereik kan word... Kan iemand aanbeveel word, en ons dan dalk daarruit kies? Baie moeilik om te kies, wanneer daar meer as 10 kandidate is Mia Duvenage	Mia
	2020-08-12 10:11:48	Gauteng	I browsed through the candidates, I must say they all have impressive cvs. If I were to influence the appointment I would go with the current deputy AG, however as we know thinks are not always as they are portrayed to be behind the scenes, we don't know what the selectors are looking for. My submission would be, let the appointment not be influenced by political affiliations, let it neither be an issue of race but merits and capabilities. May integrity and passion for the welfare of the country be key when appointments are made.	Stanley

			I agree with previous commenter: Before Appointing a new Auditor General a few questions have to be answered ... 1/ What has the existing auditor General achieved during his extensive period in office. 2/ will the new Auditor General just carry on as usual . 3/ what has the existing Auditor General done about the existing audit on all South African Municipalities and Governmental departments ? 4/ If the Auditor General has no political or lawful power and just reports on non compliance then walks away, this appointment will serve no purpose. 5/ This new appointment has to be coupled to authority to appoint a committee to investigate any non compliance and take legislative action to rectify the position..... ...My nomination for this Office is Mr Michael Sass CA (SA).

2020-08-12 09:44:51	Gauteng		Ms Tsakani Maluleke is a suitable candidate based on her experience as the current role as dupty Auditor General. It will be a good succession plan and continuity for her to take over from the current Auditor general.	E

2020-08-12 09:22:06	Gauteng		I do not trust submitted cvs. More investigation should be undertaken. Criminal records and assertions of corruption should exclude any candidate.	Colin

2020-08-12 09:09:20	Gauteng		Dr Moses Gasela He seems like the best candidate ito qualifications and experience. One would need to ensure that any of the candidates are without any criminal record, and no aspersions cast on their moral fibre. I wish the selectors God Speed, and may you choose wisely.	Caroline

2020-08-12 08:54:28	Gauteng		I think that this job function in South Africa should never be entrusted to any one person. You just cannot find anyone in this country with the integrity to fill a post like this. Just off the cuff I would suggest a three man/woman team with each man/woman given equal powers with an obligation that each person must sign off on all issues above a specified amount. At the moment you cannot trust any CV's at this level. There is also such diversities in the reasoning and logic that is necessary for this kind of oversight. In this country if you give anyone a position of power like this they begin to see themselves as gods.	Robert.

2020-08-12 08:42:29	Gauteng		I support the appointment of Dr Tsakane Maluleke; Dr Moses Gasela and Ms Rachel Kalidass.	temogo
2020-08-12 08:36:16	Gauteng		May we please have a candidate who has done work for the AGSA - meaning they know how the AGSA operates and has been involved at the lower levels in producing the management and audit report, which then get consolidated into the general report. My fear is that we appoint someone who has no clue or has never completed a management or audit report.	vishal

				Tsakane Maluleka - The candidate's role as Chair of SAICA has, in my view, not been very successful. The candidate has no clear view on the difference between the Board and management's responsibilities. The Board under her leadership of SAICA has become bogged down and embroiled in operational issues without attending to the Board's function, of oversight and strategic planning. Her manner is not encouraging and I have doubts whether she has the ability to lead a team. Her leadership style is abrupt and she is often rude and contemptuous towards her team members. She would not inspire people. There must be another candidate who is better suited to taking on this crucial role.

2020-08-12 07:48:46	Gauteng			The ANC Government is a "take" government. All they have done since 1996 is take. They have never created anything of substance and value. Just see all the "take" corruption that happens in every sphere of government and now they want to "take" pension fund money as there is no other money left in any other system. We need a strong AGSA to "hold the fort" against "take" corruption. Michael Sass.	Angelo

				Corrupt Government looting all the tax funds should STOP making draconian new laws to fit their own agenda . To make new laws to criminal ize legislation to criminalize a person making a error on a document is human NO need to have a criminal record. They should make theft criminal offence to their looters in ANC Gov THEFT LOOTING is criminal they should use their efforts to pay back the Billions of money the ANC stole and there should be consequenses for those who stole hard working tax payers money to enrich themself. Begin with the ANC who is corrupt and quietly and walking free.
2020-08-12 06:10:39	Gauteng			We should have a Tax revolt in this country. ANC STOP STEALING it is criminal.	rosanne

	2020-08-12 05:54:52	Gauteng	All I recommend is that the person appointed be non party affiliated and least of all ANC or EFF as their track record is shocking and the likelihood of an ANC member being appointed is highly likely. We have in the past put our trust in the government and been betrayed (refer to graft) and we cannot allow this again through the appointment of a yes man /woman as was the case of the Public Protector . We need an appointee with guts to ensure absolute honesty and due diligence.	Ian
	2020-08-12 05:52:32	Gauteng	Dear Madam / Sir Ms Tsakani Maluleke is the best candidate for me She does not just have the merits and prowess we need as well as the institutional memory, she assist the country to address the fundamental transformation objective of gender parity. 	2020-08-11 20:16:05	Gauteng	We don't need another cadre to investigate other corrupt cases. I am sick and tired of all the corruption from the ANC and there are no consequences. They remain in their posts or get promoted. No stolen money is ever recovered. We don't want another policy appointment, we want someone with integrity who is NOT a member of the ANC or any other corrupt political party.	Patsy
	2020-08-11 20:15:46	Gauteng	I am commenting on all candidates: I feel the selection is very much imbalanced, why only 2 females and 6 males. Please remove 2 males and add more two black females to be specific. For heaven sake it's women's month and yet you are oppressing women still. Secondly, stop having a candidates list filled up with Indians whom are not majority. When are we going to start seeing the candidate list representing demography of South Africa? 	2020-08-11 17:51:43	Gauteng		Only two candidates have the requisite track record to do this - Shabeer Khan and Moses Gasela. Moses Gasela has the best qualifications as the job entails more than pure auditing and his academic studies and experience provide him with this experience. Shabeer Khan has a strong CV because of the excellent work he has done at the DTI, one of the few government departments run with a clean financial audit report. The NHL does not have a great record so Michael Sass should not be considered as the CFO he would also contribute to operational performance at the institution so he must take some responsibility for this	Michael

	2020-08-11 17:06:30	Gauteng		I am an ex Business Executive from the Auditor-General and had been fortunate to work with Mr Henry Kluever, Mr Shauket Fakie, Mr Terence Nombembe and Mr Kimmi Matkwethu. They all have been excellent Auditor-Generals. I also had worked for a short period with Ms Tsakani Maluleke, I experienced here as the best candidate for the position for the following reasons: 1. She has the required experience for the unique environment the Auditor-General's position requires. The unique environment requires an unique set of audit disciplines which include amongst others, performance audit, audit of performance indicators and compliance audit. 2. During my time I interacted regularly with Ms Tsakani Maluleke and she demonstrated professionalism and excellent people skills and technical competence.	Edward
	2020-08-11 17:00:24	Gauteng		All blow smoke until they are appointed, but it seems to me that Ms. Kalidas and Mr Hoosain show potential. The very long CV's do not impress, and one candidate does not appear to be south African.	Jan
	2020-08-11 16:48:30	Gauteng		The AG should not have any political connections with the stupid ANC . He should be completely independent.	Anthony
	2020-08-11 16:43:27	Gauteng		I recommend Mr Michael Sass. The AG should be a person of Integrity, have no Political Affiliation and especially not a member of the anc, one who is not involved or connected with state capture. I would prefer the Professional Auditors Association to give their opinion or to recommend who they think is the most suitable, as for Ali mrs rhamaphosa and his band of merry thieves they would choose their candidate who would suit them best. 	2020-08-11 15:18:52	Gauteng		Mr Michael Sass, would be the suitable candidate for the position of the AG, he has ample of experience and knowledge of accounting, Auditing and public finance since this is the position that needs integrity and accountability. We really need a person who will not be affiliated to any political party, who will not be biased on matters of public finances and who adhere to the professional code of conduct, I believe he's the right person for the position. 	2020-08-11 15:13:01	Gauteng		Any ANC affiliated person should be thoroughly investigated for fraudulent qualifications before being considered. 	2020-08-11 14:48:58	Gauteng		Michael Sass seems ok but this is an important job & I don't trust ANC to choose anybody other than another cadre to facilitate looting.	Melanie
	2020-08-11 14:43:21	Gauteng			Theo
	2020-08-11 14:43:13	Gauteng		Nobody trust the ANC anymore, full of promises but no action, just corruption	Colet
	2020-08-11 14:37:00	Gauteng		Michael Sass	Gerda
	2020-08-11 14:36:39	Gauteng		I vote for Michael Sass to be the next Auditor General. He has all the relevant qualifications and he has good experience in both the private sector as well as the government of South Africa. I really hope he will be appointed as the next Auditor General and that when he is offered the job, he will do it very well and trustworthy and in the best interests of South Africa and all of its citizens!	Carien
	2020-08-11 14:08:26	Gauteng		We are all human and make mistakes. Give us a opportunity to correct the problem before declaring it a criminal offense!	Jan (Janet)
	2020-08-11 14:03:07	Gauteng		Michael Sass is the best candidate in my opinion.	Barbara
	2020-08-11 13:55:16	Gauteng		The candidates presented seem to have well rounded experience. Hopefully they are independent and not "connected" to any politician. Given the bad reputation depicted in the press in recent years of CA's (Markus Jooste and Phillip Jooste come to mind), I really hope that whoever the successful candidate is that they do a proper job!	Ethel
	2020-08-11 13:43:36	Gauteng		Good CVs for the candidates. As an individual that believes in continuity, I think that Ms Maluleke would be the best candidate. I am worried though on the corruption that our country goes through especially in the municipalities so this would be my questions for the candidates: 1. What are their plans in terms of finding regulations that can bring the wrong doers to book? 2. What are their thoughts on transparency and do they think that South African government practices transparency? 3. There are many South Africans that have qualified in the fields that can enhance the present state of the country especially in terms of our economic status - as candidates that what to head up AGSA what plans would they put in place to accommodate the unemployed graduates? 4. What is their view of South Africa's Chapter 9 institutions and are they enough to improve the status quo of South Africa.	Ntombizodwa
	2020-08-11 13:32:45	Gauteng		Michael Sass has the requirements and experience for this very important and demanding position	Allan
	2020-08-11 13:29:05	Gauteng		Candidates that must be selected must have no political affiliations and must be of such a nature that cares for the people of SA and not any members of parliament right is right and wrong is wrong	Latief
	2020-08-11 13:21:44	Gauteng			Monique
	2020-08-11 13:16:33	Gauteng		Any person who has a criminal record or is under investigation must not be considered.	Michael
	2020-08-11 13:16:32	Gauteng		Dear South Africa This applies to all your categories. With CV destroying our people and aliveliehoods which will not go away. Satan's final fling to gain control is in the Book of Revelation. This earth being 6,000 years old and the History of it being written i the Stars mwe are approaching God's judgement and separation of the world's people. THose who accept HIS salvation and those who do not. Look at Brenda Weltner on Asteroids Israel the Rapture. We can only repent and ask His Forgiveness.	LORNA
	2020-08-11 13:13:18	Gauteng		The candidate must be impartial, experienced, with the right qualification and non racist with no political connections.	Angus
	2020-08-11 13:10:52	Gauteng		Mr Shabeer khan. He needs to get the position!! Out of all the cv's posted his is the only one I read the whole thing because it was only 1 page and had everything on it. Straight to the point, I like that. Not 10 pages of writing. Unfortunately I wouldn't consider a female because in my opinion government would have them for breakfast.	Trevor
	2020-08-11 13:07:20	Gauteng		As long as they are HONEST, accountable and incorruptible - beyond reproach.	Cynthia
	2020-08-11 13:07:20	Gauteng		It is imperative that the successful candidate must have absolutely no ties with any anc government officials. He/ she must be honest, impartial, committed to good governance and rooting out corruption. My personal choice is Mr Michael Sass who has an excellent and pertinent CV.	Carol
	2020-08-11 13:06:26	Gauteng		I would support the appointment of the following candidate: Michael Sass	Vinothan

	2020-08-11 13:05:06	Gauteng	I am not familiar with any of the candidates, what you as an employer needs , is to have an independant observer, not part or parcel blood type, family, even before time of any candidate. He must sign a letter of honesty and truthfulness, and is responsible to US THE PEOPLE. NOT ANC COMRADES.	Johannes. S. P.
	2020-08-11 13:03:51	Gauteng		Virginia
	2020-08-11 12:52:19	Gauteng	Dr M Sass	Alan
	2020-08-11 12:47:40	Gauteng	The candidates must NOT be politically connected from past or current politicians, it must be a complete neutral candidate that will be completely impartial to any forthcomings.	Ivan
	2020-08-11 12:47:39	Gauteng	I would support the appointment of any one of the following candidates: Ms Rachel Kalidass, CA (SA) Michael Sass	Charles
	2020-08-11 12:41:20	Gauteng	OMW this current government of SA has become like cowboys and hopefully will choose someone with integrity and not another lackey who will follow their instruction and become embroiled in more corruption. Michael Sass - I am employed at the NHLS and am fully aware of his expertise and knowledge most importantly - he does have a proven track record in uprooting corruption.	Charmaine
	2020-08-11 12:28:38	Gauteng	Please get some one that is capable of doing the job, and is not scared to take corruption on and erradicate it.	Andries
	2020-08-11 12:26:26	Gauteng	The qualification of the candidates is CA. This was once a highly regarded qualification. Recent events have proved that this is no longer the case. Being a CA is no guarantee of anything. The candidates MUST fulfil the high ethical & moral standards that the position requires. Given the current state of affairs in SA I have grave misgivings about the motivation behind the candidates. I hope that this will be taken into account?	Bruce
	2020-08-11 12:21:42	Gauteng	Th goverment will place the member that will look to benefit them .	James
	2020-08-11 12:16:42	Gauteng	Based on racist selection and not competence.	Gerhard
	2020-08-11 11:58:06	Gauteng	Every Candidate needs to be comprehensively screened for their ethical and moral standings. The wording in the CVs is so small and there is no facility to increase the size of each document for ease of reading. From what I am able to deduce I would say each one needs to be thoroughly screened and have no prior financial misdemeanours or dishonest dealings with our corrupt ANC politicians. I would say that Michael Sass may be the most suitable candidate amongst the group.	ROBERTA
	2020-08-11 11:38:25	Gauteng	It is good to see that all the Candidates for Auditor General are seemingly qualified for the job since all of them are Chartered Accountants. It should be the committee's job to select the person most qualified for the position, without looking at race or gender, even though those are important, but rather put the person in the position that will do their job with integrity. Make sure the candidates are qualified as they say they are. Ensure they are equipped, and put them through a rigorous pre-qualification round to find out how they will ensure the position of Auditor General is conducted professionally.	Gustav
	2020-08-11 11:28:22	Gauteng		Berni
	2020-08-11 11:23:45	Gauteng	Once again only blacks nominated! There are lots of qualified people so why not have a nominee from ALL race groups to show it is not only cadres chosen. CVs must be thoroughly checked by lawyers to check all credentials are legitimate.	Miriam
	2020-08-11 11:10:29	Gauteng	The following Candidates make good appointments for AG: 1. Ms Tsakani Maluleke has exceptional CV. She is a fully qualified CA, has extensive experience as a Deputy AG. For continuity sake, the excellent work done by her and the current AG must be noticed. It is not advisable to get an external candidate when you have a team member with institutional memory of doing excellent job. She is the number one candidate. 2. Second candidate may be Dr Moses Gasela, who also makes a good candidate for Deputy AG. He has extensive background from the education perspective, with a PhD, proving his ability to engage in critical thinking. The PhD adds widely to cut down on any experience lag.	Mpho
	2020-08-11 10:59:10	Gauteng	When they show me a bill on how they tax the theives for stolen funds then we can talk again.	Marcia
	2020-08-11 10:33:36	Gauteng	I notice as usual there are no whites no Indians and no Coloureds the usual injustice in South Africa this year the most racist government	Maureen

			I've had enough of seeing incompetent government employees, ministers & parliament representatives!! I don't have the expertise to judge on their CV's of these individuals, but surely will voice my opinion on the person who employees them, we as a nation will keep you accountable for your appointments. List of the following is imperative: Competence for the position filled, Honesty, Transparency, having the nation at heart & not having their own hidden agendas, working towards building up the mess that has remained! No family or friends of the government, should be implemented, only those who are in fact QUALIFIED with every tick, ticked off to fill the JOB & then kept accountable, if not accountable there should be a clause of consequences to the position filled. I'm fed up with a government who don't seem to care about their own people, asking more taxes, finding more SOE's they can steal from, because THEY SIMPLY DON'T CARE about integrity, honesty, upholding the nation, transparency & actually doing what South Africans pay taxes for.... I'm done with this unbelievable 'no care' for South Africans!!! If you going to make demands of BEE status of companies, STOP STEALING & LINING UP your own pockets, get the proper & qualified personal & do the job properly!
	2020-08-17 03:19:03	Western Cape	Candidate Rachel Kalibas states that she has 25 years of experience. Having been born in 1981 this would mean she qualified at the age of 14 years old, then spent the next 25 years in an auditing related occupation. I find this highly unlikely and would seriously question the credibility of this candidate.Candidate Tsakani Maluleke appears to be the most suitable candidate from a brief study of his CV.The balance of the candidates have been responsible for audit controls of some sort or the other in domains that are riddled with irregularities and corruption and have no place in heading up the office of the Auditor General.	Jackie

	2020-08-14 16:16:43	Western Cape		Give the job to the current Deputy Auditor-General Ms Tsakani Maluleke, CA (SA). She appears to be qualified, has experience in the field, and will hopefully not make a mess like that disaster who is the current Public Protector.	Pauline
	2020-08-14 15:48:42	Western Cape		My comment is in support of Mr Zakariya Hoosain . My initial experiences with him was in his prior capacity of Provincial Accountant General , and thereafter in the position of Head of Treasury Western Cape Government . Mr Hoosain's high level professionalism , competence and superb talent , coupled with visionary leadership , will ensure extraordinary and sustainable success . He possesses the unique ability to devise a compelling vision and strategy to unite and re-invent the office of the Auditor -General and to address the complex challenges that lie ahead . Over the past years I have experienced direct and personal evidence of my statement above .	David
	2020-08-14 15:36:51	Western Cape		I believe that there is no one more suitable for the post than Zakariya Hoosain. He possesses not only the experience (both in Private and Public Sector), but also the integrity and work ethic required of an Auditor General. The post requires someone of strong character, honesty and someone who would live the values of the Auditor Generals Office of, auditing to build public confidence, as I for instance would be confident as a citizen of RSA of the work performed by the watchdogs of public funds (our tax payers money), if the AGSA lived the values from the very Top and led by Zakariya Hoosain. His vast auditing experience would be an asset to ensuring any incoming and current AGSA trainees receive the required training to build the reputation of the auditing field in our country and assist in building improved corporate governance. I therefore believe Zakariya Hoosain is perfectly suited to be the next AGSA.	Dawood
	2020-08-14 15:23:39	Western Cape		Please choose the best candidate. Let the candidates fully disclose what they own and if they have been suspended, found irresponsible, involved in any sort of corruption, are politically biased for or against any party, etc. Please stop playing the apartheid card but put the country first and choose an honest person and not dishonest people in any post.	Ahmed

2020-08-14 11:28:47	Western Cape			I would support Mr. Hussein whom I've known and interacted with for five years during his role as the head of provincial treasury in the Western Cape. He has the technical acumen and experience but also has high ethical standards and good people skills. He will be able to exercise his powers without fear or favour and have the best interests of the people of the country at heart, not the politicians.	Estelle

	2020-08-14 00:30:53	Western Cape	Zakariya Hoosain has a good understanding of understanding of the public sector environment having worked in the Western Cape Provincial Treasury for 5 years as an Accounting Officer for the Treasury Dept as well as ensuring support to 12 other provincial depts and the Western Cape municipalities. During his tenure, he worked closely with municipalities whilst driving the Operation Clean Audit and other support functions. His ability to listen, be impartial and understanding of integovernmental relations to navigate in the 3 spheres of government will serve him well in the role Auditor General. Furthermore, his perspective of the local government environment will bring a better understanding in the Office of the AGSA given the various issues raised by municipalities about the auditing environment in the local government space (and the provincial space) which the Office of the AGSA has over the years displayed limited understanding thus giving rise to unnecessary frustrations.	Nozuko
	2020-08-13 22:45:02	Western Cape	I would recommend that South Africa have someone in place as the Auditor General that knows how government departments work (Rather, all spheres of government) . In addition to someone that have proven to show good financial management through good financial governance. It is also pivotal that the person has unbiased views and take up the importance of looking after the spending of public money on its intended purposes and ensure that proper mechanisms are in place to protect the funds to enhance South Africa It is on the basis and assessment of the CV's uploaded that Mr Zakariya Hoosain would be the best candidate for this position. However, based on the outcome, for any candidate who is successful, we must ensure accountability and make the individuals Performance Reviews open to the public as they are accountable to the public	Damian

It is time we introduce fresh individuals to the AG who have can bring in new perspectives instead of those who are already in the AG and will come with the same ideas. Change is needed. This can only be done by electing officials from a fresh background. Mr Hoosain's clear understanding of administration of public institutions and dealing with public funds will be a great asset. Mr Hoosain's clear track record with clean audits at the Western Cape Provincial treasury for five years running is certainly a commendable indication of his competency.	Zakiyya

	2020-08-13 15:17:18	Western Cape		Mr Zak Hoosain is a man of impeccable integrity and proven ability. I worked with him as a colleague for the better part of 5 years. During this period he led the Provincial Treasury of the Western Cape Government with distinction. For me his most notable achievement was driving the Integrated Management agenda within the WCG which continued to keep the WCG as the leading province in the RSA from both a governance and delivery perspective. He embodies everything that you would want in a leader. Most notable for me is his ability to work transversally, his ability to form partnerships, his ability to listen, his ability to simply complex matters and his ability to get everyone motivated to achieve a common goal. His record speaks for itself. South Africa needs Zak as the next AG.	Anthony

Working as the Head of Treasury in the Western Cape dealing with all Departments and Municipalities he would definitely able to lead in the role as Auditor General. We need the new fresh blood and he has the capability of bringing a new dimension to Treasury which is currently desperately needed.	Maureen
	2020-08-13 13:33:11	Western Cape		Having reviewed the CV's of all the candidates, in my opinion none of them are suitable for the post. They seem to be 'job hoppers' moving in rapid succession from one appointment to the next. It all seems to be about self, rather what they can do for the country. Most of them are what I would term to be 'lightweights', overselling themselves.	Ian
	2020-08-13 13:23:39	Western Cape		Z Hoosain seems to have the most experience	Leanne
	2020-08-13 12:53:07	Western Cape		Zakariya Hoosain Excellent candidate for this position because of his integrity and honesty. 	2020-08-13 11:46:28	Western Cape		I am a head hunter and been in the recruitment and selection industry for over 20 years. I have spent time and reviewed the CVs of each candidate. In my professional opinion it is clear that Tsakani Maluleka would be my preferred candidate if we had been selected to run this assignment. Apart from being the current DAG which will give her a detailed understanding of the AGSA office, strategy and staff, she is also active in the professional services arena and it seems she truly wants to uplift the profession, apart from the AGSA as an institution . 	2020-08-13 11:21:37	Western Cape		All the candidates are probably corrupt criminals. Try choosing somebody honest and clean and most importantly non-criminal and incorruptible with a clear definition of what's right and wrong. You may need to ask the public to participate in this, because I no longer believe that you are capable of appointing somebody like that. You always choose somebody you can control so that everything goes in your favour. Fliggin evil Hitlers!	May
	2020-08-13 11:07:31	Western Cape		I do not	Dirk Annette

	2020-08-13 10:45:33	Western Cape		comment on no specific candidate.. However in the interests of the Tax Payers Money that will remunerate the successful candidate, we implore the selectors to ensure that the candidate is : 1. NOT A MEMBER OF THE ANC 2. NO IMMEDIATE FAMILY IS A MEMBER OF THE ANC. 3. HAS NOT BEEN IMPLICATED IN ANY WRONG DOING i.e Finance, Corruption 4. SIGNS AN AGREEMENT that allows for any CORRUPTION on the part of the CANDIDATE to be charged within 6 months of the offence being identified and on a NO PAY basis during suspension and their ASSETS ARE FROZEN IMMEDIATELY in the event. 5. Any Losses experienced by the Tax Payer as a result of the AG's failure to expose corruption are recovered from the AG. The above maybe will see a few withdrawals.	andrew

	2020-08-12 20:22:27	Western Cape		Zakariya Hoosain The incumbent has a varied and diverse experience in the governance environment especially as it relates to audit assurance and financial management in both the private and public sector. Being the Head of the leading Treasury in the Country with a Proven track record on good governance and prudent financial management means that there is practical content and as the AG he would not be moving from a theoretical context and that he has a proven track record to show for it. He is also at the right age and equity to make a difference and be more successful than previous candidates. He is level headed, politically astute, and has the right demeanor to bode confidence and trust in the AG.	Nadia

	2020-08-12 20:01:19	Western Cape		While i think Tsakani would be a great AG and further the current plans of the AGSA, I think that the AGSA needs some new blood and new ideas. Zakariyya Hoosain would do so well. He has worked in the public sector as Head of Treasury, so he brings a wealth of knowledge from that point of view.	Aneesa

	2020-08-12 19:30:43	Western Cape	Mr. Zahariya Hoosein. I have known him in several capacities and have worked with him as well. I found him to be very knowledgeable on the government environment as well as very level headed. I also found him to be far-sighted and future orientated. He also is the type of manager that can work with people at all levels which is crucial in the government environment. He is also well known and admired among the AG management which is also very important for continuity.	John

	2020-08-12 16:55:14	Western Cape		Vir die keuring...is daar van elke politieke party 'n verteenwoordiger om te saam die CV'S te bekijk of word weer 'n eensydige ANC aanstelling? net soos die SAUK raad 'n eensydige aansteling..hier moet almal by betrokke wees en die salaris bekend gemaak word ons betaal die salaris as belasting betalers en versoek keuring van al die partye,	Anita
	2020-08-12 16:49:59	Western Cape		I have read the CV's of all the candidates and all appear well experienced and skilled in the auditing world. I know none of them and really the only criteria to judge candidates by are their integrity and leadership. If there is a hint of malpractice or malfeasance for any candidate they must be eliminated. Sex and colour must play no part in the choice. The absolute best candidate in terms as stated above should lead this important government institution.	Eugenie
	2020-08-12 16:20:38	Western Cape		Mr Michael Sass has my vote. He appears to have broad experience and many years in the corporate world. Hopefully whoever is elected will be non political and honest.	Pamela

	2020-08-12 15:02:16	Western Cape		Reading through the various CV's of the candidates for the Auditor-General (AG), in my view, none and I repeat it, NONE OF THESE CANDIDATES ARE QUALIFIED TO TAKE UP THE POSITION OF AG.	Theo
	2020-08-12 14:59:36	Western Cape		Mr.Sass or Dr.Shoko look to be best of the bunch.There must be absolutely no political allegiances to ANC/EFF and strong enough to say No to ministers when appropriate.	Anton
	2020-08-12 14:34:34	Western Cape		Candidates must be chosen based on the following criteria and NOT RACE!! - Relevant Qualifications and expertise. - Relevant Auditing and Accounting experience - NO criminal record - No affiliation to the ANC or ANY political party - Strength of character and integrity to resist political influence of any kind. - Relevant professional achievements in previous employment positions.	Marie
	2020-08-12 14:26:15	Western Cape		The candidate must have experience and expertise but must be strong enough to resist any political pressure. Both Khan and Maluleke seem to be suitable candidates.	Pauline
				Increase in sin tax. That's a joke. They have set the beverage industry back years. All the taverns have gone underground again. Mrs Zuma and her merry men have cornered the cigarette industry. Illegal cigarettes are flooding the market. Anyone with half a brain has quit smoking. A lot of people myself included have quit drinking alcoholic beverages. I wonder what the impact will be on the economy as a result.
	2020-08-12 14:24:46	Western Cape		I can tell anyone who will listen that the anc will be slaughtered at the polls come the next election. This government is not fit for purpose.	Barry

	2020-08-12 14:20:15	Western Cape		Maybe Michael Sass - or the person least likely to be drawn into corruption, stealing, siding with the ANC?!	Carla
	2020-08-12 13:01:47	Western Cape		Mr Sass- But ethics is a big issue- who can be trusted to not have been corrupted- That wont be in their CV	Mike

	2020-08-12 12:28:31	Western Cape		Unable to comment intelligently as I am not a CA. Person appointed must be tough,able to identify corruption and take it to the courts or the NDPP.	Robert
	2020-08-12 12:24:51	Western Cape		NO to Gasela. Too focused on academic pursuits, with an over-emphasis on government positions occupied. Too used to the status-quo of looting, fraud, wasteful expenditure and ineptitude.	Ettienne
	2020-08-12 12:07:40	Western Cape		Integrity, honesty, consistency and not being politically influenced are key factors.	cheryl
	2020-08-12 11:58:02	Western Cape		All of the candidates seem to be highly qualified academically and have enough experience in the practice of auditing to be able to do the job; the key issue is one of ethical principles and the ability to remain free of political interference and to this end each candidate needs to declare any involvement in party politics of himself and / or any of his family members, needs to take a solemn oath of office to deal fairly and ethically with his "client" civil services.	PETER
	2020-08-12 11:43:00	Western Cape		My prayer is that God, who sees the hearts & intentions, will appoint someone who can be trusted not only for that position but for every position in government including and starting with the office of the presidency.	Maria

	2020-08-12 11:26:38	Western Cape		Mr Sass seems to be the most popular choice & he has the credentials. But whomever gets the position he/she should know the public are watching, no more corruption or pocket lining	Liz

	2020-08-12 11:26:03	Western Cape		Mr Michael Sass looks a good candidate knowing the infrastructure, culture and of South Africa . Will he in time also be persuaded into corruption, bribery and the intimidation loop. Hope not	doug
	2020-08-12 11:12:45	Western Cape		We are already too highly taxed . As a result not enough money is being spent at business establishments leading to reduced unemployment. This is inhumane! NO further increased taxation of any sort until stolen money is recovered, the corrupt are fired and we are no longer rated JUNK!	Roy
	2020-08-12 11:08:04	Western Cape		I liked what I read about Mr Shabeer Khan. There was something in the CV's of each of the other impressive candidates which made me doubt their capacity to accomplish the difficult job they will have. Having said that, I have to say I am woefully unqualified to pass an opinion. This is merely my gut feel talking.	Rosemary
	2020-08-12 11:01:24	Western Cape		Ek het nie genoeg ondervinding en kennis wat sy werk alles behels nie maar sal iemand aanvaar solank hy net nie deur ons ANC kabinet gekies word nie want dan sal die aanstelling weereens n mislukking wees omdat niemand tot orde geroep sal word waar die ANC se kaders in beheer van sake is nie.	Sophia
	2020-08-12 10:59:14	Western Cape		They will all have hidden agendas regardless of what we think do or say. Do you honestly think this corrupt government would put in someone they cannot control. They even made sure they could control the President. The ANC to rotten to the very core.	a
	2020-08-12 10:49:07	Western Cape		I am against this law. No government should ever be allowed to incriminate its citizens for unintended mistakes.	Oscar
	2020-08-12 10:33:22	Western Cape		I have every confidence that Michael Sass is the man for the job. He is aware that he will be watched closely, and I'm sure that he will do his very best for the Country.	MAUREEN

	2020-08-12 09:51:29	Western Cape		Before Appointing a new Auditor General a few questions have to be answered ... 1/ What has the existing auditor General achieved during his extensive period in office. 2/ will the new Auditor General just carry on as usual . 3/ what has the existing Auditor General done about the existing audit on all South African Municipalities and Governmental departments ? 4/ If the Auditor General has no political or lawful power and just reports on non compliance then walks away, this appointment will serve no purpose. 5/ This new appointment has to be coupled to authority to appoint a committee to investigate any non compliance and take legislative action to rectify the position..... ...My nomination for this Office is Mr Michael Sass CA (SA).	David
	2020-08-12 09:47:37	Western Cape		Solank dit nie iemand van die regerende party is nie.	Nellie

	2020-08-12 09:43:58	Western Cape		The selected candidates should be independent to the government	Suzanna

Why make new laws if they cannot even run a bank account let alone a country!!!	Jacobus
	2020-08-12 09:00:22	Western Cape		Mr Sassman Read his cv, my opinion for his proposed appointment.	Jeremy
	2020-08-12 08:59:58	Western Cape		Ms Rachel Kalidass, says that she has 25 years extensive experiences. She was born in 1981. that would mean she started receiving her extensive experience when she was 14 years old. I'd advise vetting every single detail on the CV's of the applicants., to ensure no falsehoods. For the level of position they've applied , there can be NO mistakes on the selection of the candidate.	Jody
	2020-08-12 08:43:14	Western Cape		Micheal Sass and Tsakane Maluleke are the best candidates based on experience and qualifications.	Steve
	2020-08-12 08:42:22	Western Cape		In my humble opinion, these three candidates stood out above the others for various reasons: Mr Sass, for his forensic auditors skills (since a candidate with know-how & and the motivation who can implement financial oversight is integral to a state of clean governance - which is sadly lacking in all spheres of the government (clearly the level of financial mismanagement and the fact that perpetrators are not held accountable is evidence enough of this lack of honesty in governance) ; Mr Khan, he is still young so has opportunity to lay the groundwork and forge better paths for South Africa especially with the record of his clean audits; Ms Maluleke, for the fact that she is a young female candidate who speaks almost all official languages of a country as diverse as South Africa, which may appear to be all inclusive. However, the main drawback for me with this candidate is the fact that her primary aim is BEE- which is by its' very definition Not Inclusive whereas this country needs an 'all inclusive' future, not one that is bent on only empowering particular sectors of our society - I want what is best for the country as a whole, and I fear that the mind-set of BEE at all costs is a main contributor to South Africa's current junk status. This candidate would have been a strong contender if she had a more inclusive approach.	Jo-Ann
	2020-08-12 08:42:02	Western Cape		No problem with any of them because they are unknown to me.	Christie
	2020-08-12 08:35:15	Western Cape		The general public are not responding/not active in these polls anymore because it doesn't seem to make any difference. The government do as they please anyway.	Marelize
	2020-08-12 08:30:36	Western Cape		Dr. Moses Gasela: indeoth andvintrigue knowledge of the public sector.	Gerhard
	2020-08-12 08:20:13	Western Cape		This requirement is the beginning and the end of my requirements for an Auditor- General who have to act in public and taxpayers interest. To ensure clean financial management and governance. With exploding corruption and mal administration right through local and national government, this requirement should be of paramount importance for the appointment of the AG. If the candidate cannot provide the surety, he or she should not be appointed as AG.	Stefan
	2020-08-12 08:16:01	Western Cape		Michael Sass is my choice	Eben

	2020-08-12 08:14:41	Western Cape		I dont support this list, I feel there are stronger candidates out there who are able to stand up for the rights of the people - no political allegiance and a person who can lead by example.	Debra

	2020-08-12 07:56:09	Western Cape		Any one who is independent of the ruling party in particular with recent historic association should be avoided at all costs I would opt for Michael Sass	Brian
	2020-08-12 07:43:35	Western Cape		Micheal Sach	Johann
	2020-08-12 07:35:09	Western Cape		All candidates of the ANC must be removed because they are the most corrupt political party with their weak president and all that just covers up each other's corruption	Sue
	2020-08-12 07:33:33	Western Cape		Michael Sass is my choice. I was looking at Rachel Kalidass, but then I noticed here DOB is '81 and she claims to have 25 years experience, which does not add up. Also she was involved in Brand SA and SABC which is riddled with corruption. That is already a RED FLAG	M

	2020-08-12 07:19:14	Western Cape		Mistakes happen and individuals should be given the opportunity to rectify the mistake. We are not all tax professionals (and even professionals may make a mistake) and it does not constitute an intentional criminal act!!!	Wain
	2020-08-12 07:14:37	Western Cape		Remove ANC candidates from list. Full background check, with public participation. Any irregularity, be it small, must mean immediate removal from list.	Anna

	2020-08-12 03:55:17	Western Cape		MR Michael Sass is of my opinion the most qualified for the position off Auditor General.	Marcus

	2020-08-11 17:55:19	Western Cape		I cannot nominate any candidate as CV's albeit are "something to go on", these are choices made by the corrupt ANC party so what would it matter what we say or have an opinion on. They will put someone in the position that they will have control over no matter what anyone says. Corruption rules and at some point most everyone involved with the ANC, especially appointed by them will end up being exactly that and if they don't "play the ANC game" they will leave or get booted out. No matter who is appointed, let's not kid ourselves that what we the people that the ANC actually serve, do anything but that. The ANC will only stop when they have destroyed everything in South Africa and have complete control, so it does not matter who they appoint in any position, they are disgusting and should be ashamed of themselves.	Gail

	2020-08-11 15:01:21	Western Cape		The country most definitely requires someone with integrity, knowledge, resilience and no political bias. I don't think the ANC hangs out in these circles... Michael Sass seems to be suitably qualified and experienced . He should be the ideal candidate and hopefully not connected to the political world of the ANC. We need a person who would not be influenced or intimidated by the ANC. Our country had it's share of corruption. No more is needed	TC

	2020-08-11 14:01:22	Western Cape		Dr. Moses Gasela. Being the CFO of the Northern Cape from 2008 to date is possibly the worst thing to put on a CV for a position of an Auditor General! The glaring failures on the Financial front of this province is not an achievement, especially NOT for an Auditor General. The person for this position must have an exploratory track record of effectively following and enforcing the financial systems put in place to prevent irregular and unauthorized expenditure. It is abundantly clear that this candidate can not even manage a single provenances woes, let alone what is expected of the applied position!	Eben

				This is not easy for a layman like me - even at the age of 73 - even after 40 years of banking experience - mainly credit assessment. My judgement - purely based on the info given. 1. Michael Sacks is definitely my favourite, 2. Rachel Kalidass - I like her action at the SABC Board, but I would have loved her to stand up and fight it out - that would have gone a long way to move her up on my list. 3. Kahn - as 9 yrs Snr Man at AG, he is a good candidate 4. Same for Hoosain - although a bit young, his history of clean audit as head of Provincial Audit - is positive. 5. Same for Maluleki - speaking 10/11 languages is terrific and & Deputy AG since 2014 - although a bit young. Lekulemi, & Gasela - I would dismiss. So - I will go with Sacks. Pity = I find the feedback poor & irrelevant.

	2020-08-11 13:11:43	Western Cape		Having experience working for Delloitte , the United Nations and the SA Government even in the position of deputy Auditor General should immediately preclude any candidate from getting the position. You have a CV of someone who worked for Transnet for instance, under her watch millions of Rands were squandered on trains that are too tall for our rail system? Where is evidence that the potential candidate made her voice heard in the halls of power in transnet during their term working for them. The same goes for the rest of them, there is no proof that any of them got to where they are other than by the colour of their skin and cronyism. The net must be cast much wider.	Andrew

				I do not support the list of candidates given the racist approach adopted here. We are supposed to be a "rainbow nation" are you telling me no other race of person is capable of being considered for the job? Point is for this role you need the best person for the job. A Honest, Qualified person! We need a broader spectrum of options not leaving out any demographics - I DO NOT SUPPORT THIS LIST.

2020-08-11 12:20:48	Western Cape			In terms of appropriate experience and limited past involvement with government entities (that, to date, have a less than reputable image in the public mind) I feel Mr Michael Sass would be the best candidate for the position of DG.	INGRID
2020-08-11 12:07:25	Western Cape			It is good to see that all the Candidates for Auditor General are seemingly qualified for the job since all of them are Chartered Accountants. It should be the committee's job to select the person most qualified for the position, without looking at race or gender, even though those are important, but rather put the person in the position that will do their job with integrity. Make sure the candidates are qualified as they say they are. Ensure they are equipped, and put them through a rigorous qualification round to find out how they will ensure the position of Auditor General is conducted professionally.	Zindzi

2020-08-11 12:01:51	Western Cape			I am reluctant to name a candidate. The fact that these candidates are chartered accountants, is irrelevant in the times we are living in now. In the past the ethics of chartered accountants were not under suspicion, but unfortunately it has been grossly compromised by the behaviour of some individuals working in this field. Also, how is it possible that huge amounts of taxpayers' money could be misappropriated without the Auditor General's office picking up on it, if they are doing their job correctly? It is difficult, under the circumstances, to be positive about any appointment here.	Annamarie
2020-08-11 11:57:42	Western Cape			I do not support the list of candidates given the racist approach adopted Again no second class - WHITE - candidates????!!! Point is for this role you need the best person for the job and by being racist you limit your options	Leon

The rest of the candidates in my opinion are cadre deployments, if not so I apologize, which ask or open the door for no justice and righteousness. We need someone neutral not being manipulated by any political party. If they are serious about SA SA must be the final consideration. Not ones dedication to a party. We need someone who can make a decision with fear for his life. so typical in SA politics.	Andre
	2020-08-12 13:44:29	North West		Dr Edmond Shoko looks like a great candidate, as he did his qualifications in the UK, so without the influence of the South African universities, and seems to have a great amount of expertise, knowledge and experience to be appointed to the role of the South African Auditor General. 	2020-08-12 12:12:02	North West		Political interference in all aspects of south african life is a huge problem as it is and especially so when it comes to high profile individuals. It appears, to the majority of the populace, that a person with political connections will not be held accountable for any nefarious activities that that individual may embark upon. Thus it is incumbent on the President to ensure that a person with the least in political connections is considered for the position in order that there is minimal conflict of interest. In that regard I thus propose that Mr Michael Sass be considered for the position.	David

Michael Sass, Rachel Kalidass and Edmond Shoko should be shortlisted and undergo a televised public debate with tough questions posed by a reputable independent investigative reporter.	Silviu

				I must congratulate all the selected Candidates and their excellent Pedigrees. I believe South Africa has given its trust to the work of the Auditor General and thanks to the vision carried by the Officials who served in the Organisation during the past years. I would recommend to the selection panelists that we carry that vision for the next decade, and these will be better served by ensuring continuity in the office of the Auditor General. In this regard, I plead with Parliament to appoint Ms Tsakane Maluleka. It is the visionary leadership that she had embraced while serving as Deputy AG, and the excellent work of the organisation that compels all of us, to ensure that no disruption or slowing down is created by this transition. I believe also that Ms Maluleka will ensure that Entities of the state that are highly critical to the economy of South Africa are only audited by the AGSA. These includes all Energy Entities (e.g. Eskom), Water Entities, Transport (E.g. PRASA, TRANSNET), Health, and Financial Institutions

	2020-08-11 16:12:00	Mpumalanga		Michael Sass looks like a good candidate, although I would stress that all candidates need to be audited and checked that they are not family or best friends with any person in any political party. Completely neutral and unbiased.	Maxine

	2020-08-11 14:53:34	Mpumalanga		Michael Sass seems to be suitably qualified and experienced . He should be the ideal candidate and hopefully not connected to the political world of the ANC. We need a person who would not be influenced or intimidated by the ANC. Our country had it's share of corruption. No more is needed.	Bertha

	2020-08-13 10:33:33	Limpopo		Kindly receive my nominated candidate Ms Tsakani Maluleke for the position of Auditor - General. She has been the Deputy Auditor General for South Africa and her track record on top of her qualifications prove with no doubt that she is fit and proper. Not only for women emancipation but clearly that she carries her intergrity, wisdom and her acceptable social and academic credentials with. I therefore request and plead with authorities to give her chance. I must confess that I have read profiles of all other candidates and Ms Tsakani still tops the list.	Matobole Abel

	2020-08-12 11:33:08	Limpopo		We are already over taxed and with covid 19 with job losses and economic turmoil at present, it is not the time to raise taxes and further burden on citizens. Not to speak of all the corruption and waste of hard earned money by government. First get your act together.	JC
	2020-08-12 11:26:07	Limpopo		Ms Tsakani Maluleke, is the right person for this post because already she understands the culture in this organisation and she will continue to build on the success that was achieved under Kimi Makwetu. 	2020-08-13 13:52:22	Free State		The AG office has had over a century of existence and with a great reputation. The next candidate should be able to continue this legacy in most countries Auditor Generals are not financially independent from the government it audits and in SA there is independence. In the words of Thomas Sankara "He who feeds you owns you" I believe continuity of the embedded culture and independent AG office is a necessity. Tsakani Maluleke has led as CEO in the most difficult term of implementing the amended PAA, while maintaining independence. She is the best suited candidate to as she has the best strategic outline as already demonstrated in the DAG role. South Africa needs a black woman AG South Africa deserves a Tsakani Maluleke who has demonstrated to not being owned by anyone as she is not fed by anyone. Independence is important for an Auditor and more important for the nations number 1 Auditor We need to guard the AGSA's office by all means as we transform by allowing a capable,competent,intelligent and formidable woman with great business foresight in the AGSA	Mashea

	2020-08-13 07:17:06	Free State		South African citizens are constantly paying for the corruption of government officials and this is depleting the person that still has a job of their hard earned income. We don't want to do this any more.	Magda
	2020-08-12 22:50:38	Free State		Tsakani Ratsela: - Led and introduced many valuable financial reforms within AGSA. - She is revolutionary business leader very disciplined and highly ethical. - She led and owned the AGSA strategy for the past seven years and was able to achieve all its targets. - she is bold enough to take tough yet necessary decisions. - Young and energetic - she manages her stakeholder relationships very well and respects all people. 	2020-08-12 11:49:30	Free State		Ek sou mnr. Sass graag ondersteun, aangesien hy op sigwaarde die mees onwaarskynlike keuse vir korruksie en party-politieke gedienstigheid is. Hy beskik oor die vereiste minimum kwalifikasies, wat in Suid-Afrika verkry is. Gevolglik behoort hy ook begrip te hê vir die politieke kultuur en moontlike swak plekke in die openbare sektor vir die kanker van korruksie.	David

				Pick the person with the most experience and a backbone to stand up against corruption, regardless of race or gender. There is a time for gender and race equality, but to have an above-average government the best candidate for the job must be given a job without race or gender having a positive or negative influence.
